OFFICE ORDER

It is observed that some of the Colleges affiliated to this University are submitting form fill up data of their students for different examinations beyond the stipulated date which creates problem at this end for proper scrutiny. This has been viewed seriously by the Vice Chancellor. In order to discourage this type of late submission and further request to extend the time, the Vice Chancellor has ordered to impose a fine @Rs.5000/- for colleges those who submit forms beyond the notified stipulated date which is to be allowed for a maximum period upto 7 days prior to holding of the notified examination.

No such cases after the above mentioned period will be allowed under any circumstances and consequences thereof if any for non-submission of forms will be the sole responsibility of the concerned college.

This order is effective from 1st January' 2023.

By order of the Vice Chancellor
