1. ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Utkal University of Culture is a leading and unique University of the State of Odisha. It Was established in the year 1999 by virtue of an Act of the odisha legislative Assembly called “ Utkal University of Culture Act,1999” . It is a teaching-cum-affiliating University with jurisdiction over the entire State. It engages itself to preserve, promote, propagate and protect the richness of the cultural heritage by way of making substantive accomplishments through teaching, research and extension. The University has duly been recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) under section 2(f) of the U.G.C. Act, 1956. It has been accredited by the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and also by the Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU).

Guru-Shishya Parampara prevails on the campus of the University. Academic and social life inside the campus is eco-friendly and enriching. Qualified and experienced faculties aim at progressive teaching and learning in several frontiers of knowledge in cultural studies. They try to create a synergy between the intellectual understanding and the practical methods and skills to make teaching and research more interesting and motivating. The University always endeavours to provide an enabling and vibrant academic ambience for all its stakeholders.

LOCATION

The University has two campuses. The permanent campus of the university over a sprawling 45-acre land allotted by G.A. Department of the State of Odisha with bounties of nature is located at Madanpur. Madanpur is an academic hub having a number of technical and general colleges. The distance from the old campus is around 20 kms. The old campus of the University is located at Sardar Patel Hall Complex, Unit-II, Bhubaneswar-751009, and remains the city centre of the University.

The new campus attracts the onlookers for its huge and soothing structural pattern as well as the natural ambience.

The large size classrooms, well maintained hostels, wide corridors, Sculpture garden and library attract the students and visitors from far and near.

2. COURSES OFFERED

FACULTY OF PERFORMING ARTS (MPA PROGRAMME)

Performing Arts transcend all the barriers and touch the heart of everyone. Different Departments under this Faculty create a vibrant atmosphere on the campus. The campus is resonant with the enticing fusion of Mardal, Tabla Flute, Violin and Sitar coupled with the Hindustani Vocal and Odishi Vocal. The rhythm of Odishi Dance and Chow Dance also add to the up-beat mood on the campus. Experienced and eminent faculty members enthral the receptive students and help propagating and preserving the Odishan and Indian Culture. Students and teachers wholeheartedly work for the growth and preservation of our tradition. The Department of Drama adds yet another feather to the cap with specialisations in Acting and Design and Direction. Students and teachers have now occupied significant positions starting from celluloid media to electronic media. They also excel in enactment on the stage in theatre houses.

FACULTY OF VISUAL ARTS (MVA PROGRAMME)

The finest contribution of Odisha to our country's cultural heritage is in the fields of art, architecture and sculpture. All through the ages, Odisha was famous for its superior art and culture. The University offers Post-graduate courses in different branches of Visual Art with an aim to encourage the students pursuing careers in Painting, Print Making, Applied Art and Design, Sculpture and Art History to develop a scholarly and proficient artists of high order in the concerned fields. Besides the regular curricula, academic lectures by the visiting scholars and resource persons are organised from time to time, through demonstrations, exhibitions and field studies. There is ample scope for the students in the aforesaid courses to have a prospective career both at national and international levels.

FACULTY OF ARCHITECTURE AND ARCHAEOLOGY (M.A. PROGRAMME)

Cultural Heritage and Conservation

Conservation of cultural heritage has acquired global importance and attention in recent times. It has become an interesting area without boundaries. The word 'culture' developed far wider connotations, today. Cultural heritage and conservation cover a wider range of knowledge in fields such as museum, environment, ecology, films, audio recordings, etc. Advancements in science and technology have made it possible for creating new perspectives and ideas in the techniques of conservation.

The cultural heritage of Odisha is vast and rich, especially in the areas of pre-history, temple art and architecture, palm leaf manuscripts, folk and tribal heritage, crafts, ecology and environment. The course is so designed that it can enhance theoretical knowledge of the learners in archaeology, museology and conservation. India and Odisha in particular for its rich socio-cultural history provides abundant opportunities for experts in archaeology and conservation. The students can pursue prospective career in Archaeological Survey of India, INTACH, State and National Archives, Museums, Manuscript Mission, etc.

Museology

Museology or museum studies is the study of museums. It explores the history of museums and their role in society, as well as the activities they engage in, including curating, preservation, public programming, and education. It can be considered as a science as well as humanities subject. The university is now offering M.A. Museology programme with 16 seats.

The contribution of this course to promote Museum culture in Odisha is noteworthy. The Netaji Subash Chandra Bose Museum, the Maritime Museum and the Judicial Museum were set up at Cuttack;

Odisha State Museum and Tribal Museum were set up in Bhubaneswar. The ancestral house of Netaji at Puri too was converted into a museum by INTACH.

Student can have wide spread knowledge over management of Museums, conservation of monuments with this course. After completely M.A. Museology, there are career opportunity in both Government and Private sector such as in art galleries, museums, educational institutions for the position of faculty member, curator, museum associate etc.

FACULTY OF LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

M.A. in Linguistics

Linguistics has now emerged as an important branch of social sciences. Even though it has evolved today into an interdisciplinary study with western methodological orientation, it is not new to Indian academia. Pioneering attempts of sociolinguistic approaches can be found in the Indian tradition of Grammar and Philology. Along with language studies, the subject incorporates the social and developmental factors, which add an applied interdisciplinary module to the subject. The department also give importance to the study of the endangered languages of India with special focus on the ones spoken in Odisha. Language documentation and analysis is being encouraged so that we can do something worthwhile to preserve these languages.

The curriculum of the department draws its methodology from disciplines like anthropology, sociology, linguistics, literature, culture studies etc., and such an interdisciplinary approach widens prospective career opportunities. Therefore, the study can be of immense help to professionals like teachers, teacher-educators, speech therapists, information technologists, community developers, translators, literary workers, and other social scientists.

M.A in Odia Language and Literature

The Department of Odia, from its inception give special emphasis on strengthening the system of higher learning and research in Odia Language and Literature. The thrust area in the post- graduate programme of Odia is on the study of Odia Language and Literature with special focus on contemporary Odia literature and its interaction with other Indian languages and literatures.

The department has also developed an ambience for research, which will drive the scholars towards greater achievements. Interdisciplinary research as well as collaboration with other institutions is promoted for more valuable outcome of research.

FACULTY OF CULTURE STUDIES (M.A. PROGRAMME)

Culture Studies

This pioneering programme aims at providing an innovative study of culture. Apart from giving conceptual clarification of the loaded term 'Culture,' the programme also creates insights into 'Culture Studies.' The programme intends to liberate the study of culture in India from the confines of disciplinarian discourses, such as Anthropology, Sociology, History, Tribal Studies and Gender Studies, and to establish it as a subject of study in its own right. It is, therefore, an interdisciplinary endeavour, seeking to explore the intricacies of culture, both in the traditional and modern globalised context. It aspires to acquaint the students with knowledge of the vast diversity of human culture in time and space and its multifarious and multidisciplinary approach in understanding culture with special reference to Odisha and India. This unique subject gained its first ground in the Euro-American Academia. With the diverse socio-cultural trends in India, the study of culture would provide countless opportunities in making a prospective career.

CERTIFICATE COURSES

With a view to disseminate cultural knowledge in different field the university has been offering two certificate courses.

Certificate Course in Jain Religion and Philosophy

Certificate Course in Jain religion and Philosophy is the only one of its kind and is offered in a very few Universities across the country. Jainism, one of the oldest among world religions has substantially enriched the tradition and culture of India and Odisha in particular. The course envisages making the students conversant with Prakrit language, Jain art, architecture, philosophy, ethics and religion. The students obtaining this certificate will have an added edge over others while working for research institutes in Oriental Studies, in Archaeological Survey of India, Museums, Odisha Tourism Development Corporation and Indian Tourism Development Corporation, etc.

Certificate Course in Tamil Language

The Tamil Development Department, Govt. of Tamil Nadu has established a Tamil Chair in Utkal University of Culture since 2001 for Tamil language, teaching and research among non-Tamil speaking people. The University has introduced a Certificate Course in Tamil Language since 2011. Students from different walks of life like Advocates, Engineers, Teachers and other professionals are taking keen interest in learning Tamil Language. Though originally it was meant to teach Tamil language to non-Tamil speaking people it is seen that many Tamilians themselves are pursuing their studies here. In fact, during short span of time the course has become quite popular.

3. NON-NEGOTIABLE ACADEMIC CALENDAR

At the beginning of each academic session, the University draws up an academic calendar. Academic and co-curricular activities are carried out as per the schedules indicated in the calendar. The calendar is approved by the Academic Council of the University and is non-negotiable in nature. Hence, the stipulated dates for different activities are strictly adhered to by the University as well as its affiliated colleges.

14. TRANSPORTATION

Students who want to avail transportation facility will have to indicate their willingness in the On-line application form and shall have to make on-line payment of Rs. 800/- Per Semester at the time of admission to each Semester in addition to admission fee.

15. ELIGIBILITY FOR APPEARING IN EXAMINATION

Percentage of Attendance

A student shall be required to secure at least 75% of attendance in theory and practical classes taken together in each semester to become eligible to appear at the Semester Examinations.

Provided that in exceptional cases on genuine medical grounds or natural calamity, the Chairman, P.G Council of the University/the Principal of the college may condone shortage of attendance to the extent of 15%, subject to the production of Medical Certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner.

Further, the Vice-Chancellor may condone the shortage of attendance to the extent of additional 5% in respect of students who have represented the University or the State on deputation to any University, national or international competition in sports, games, cultural programmes or performing art and visual art, NSS, with prior permission of the University.

Parents of students shall be informed periodically regarding their percentage of attendance.

A student once taken admission into a P.G. Course i.e., MPA/MVA/General Studies has to appear and pass in all the four semester examinations throughout the P.G.Course, for obtaining the Degree. Students who secure less than 60% of attendance in a particular semester shall not be permitted to appear at the Semester Examinations. Such students have to appear at Back Paper Examinations as per schedules of the Semester Examinations. Students who secure attendance between less than 60% and up to 30% may take Back Examination only in the next academic year after their course session (4th Semester) is over. However, under no circumstance, a student who has secured less than 30% attendance in a particular semester shall be allowed to appear even at Back Paper Examinations nor shall the student be allowed to take admission in the next semester and the studentship shall cease.

16. GENERAL FACILITIES

Publication

The University brings out research publications and reprints of rare books and manuscripts of importance in the fields of culture in conformity with the objectives of the University embodied in the Utkal University of Culture Act 1999. 'RUPAYANA', the annual literary magazine is being published every year to highlight the creative endeavour of the students, faculties and others.

Extension Programme

To provide facilities and opportunities for students, researchers, scholars and public at large, the University organizes workshops, seminars, symposia, colloquies, public lectures, panel discussions, conferences, extension lectures, etc. in various spheres of culture including language, conservation, literature, visual arts, performing arts, architecture, folklore etc.

Library

The University Library is rich with variety of quality books, magazines, research materials, Journals audio – visual aids for study in class rooms and for higher research. There are a number of classics and rare documents on Indian culture, literature and other interdisciplinary subjects. A model collection of other reports is also available in addition to adequate number of textbooks and study related reference materials for various courses. The students and scholars at present make use of library, internet and open access facilities. The library is kept open from 10.30 A.M. to 5.30 P.M. on all working days.

Wi-Fi Campus

The entire campus including the hostels of the University at Madanpur is Wi-Fi enabled. Students, faculty members and staff can access internet facility subject to terms and conditions stipulated by the University.

Reprography Facility

Limited Reprographic facilities are available in the Post-Graduate Departments of the University at a concessional rate for the students and scholars.

Anti Ragging Cell /Prevention of Sexual Harassment Cell

The University has set up an Anti Ragging Cell to prevent occurrence of any untoward incident. Members of the Cell conduct counselling programmes and remain vigilant throughout to nip the problem in the bud. Practically it is seen that the girls outnumber boys, yet the Prevention of Sexual Harassment Cell, headed by a lady teacher is very vigilant and firm. All categories of students should feel free in the campus and strive towards academic attainment.

National Service Scheme (NSS)

The NSS wing of the University is very active. Many social service activities are being taken up by the NSS Volunteers. Steps are being taken to revitalize the NSS wing and actively engaged in adventure programmes, blood donation camps, observation of national and international important days, massive plantation drive and awareness programmes on socio-cultural issues.

Grievance Redress Committee

The Grievance Redress Committee comprising Vice-Chancellor, Registrar, Controller of Examinations, Comptroller of Finance and Head, P.G.Teaching Departments of the University meets regularly to hear and dispose of the problems and issues of employees, principals of the affiliated colleges, students, parents and general public. A grievance box is kept near entry of the main building so that grievance applications can be dropped in for necessary action.

Ramp for differently abled persons

As per the guidelines of the Govt., Ramp facility has been provided for differently- abled persons to facilitate their unhindered movement.
